Through the Offg Inspr Genl of Prisons.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit these few lines with a hope that my application for pension which is being submitted to you for sanction by the Offg Inspector General of Prisons may favorably be considered. You will observe from my service Register that I have faithfully and deligently served Government for a period of 37 years, and have only one year and few months to complete for my half pension. In consideration of this fact, I beg most respectfully that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government to grant me the concession of half pension I now pray for.

I beg to remain,

Sir.

Your most obedient Servant
